"Gallia docta?" : Education and In-/Exclusion in Late Antique Gaul

Meurer, Tabea L. (ed.)
Egetenmeyr, Veronika (ed.)
1. ed.
Mohr Siebeck, 2023
(Studies in Education and Religion in Ancient and Pre-Modern History in the Mediterranean and Its Environs ; 19)
447 p.
9783161624377
103,67 €

Education is and was a mighty tool for both building communities and barring people from social participation. This volume explores the role education played for late Roman societies especially in Gaul, which was considered a landscape of learning. Numerous literary and material sources document a dynamic educational culture, even though imperial administrative structures were disintegrating by the fifth century and non-Romans were settling in Western provinces.

"Verba notata" : retos de anotación en las lenguas clásicas

Garzón Fontalvo, Eveling
(ed.)
1. ed.
Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas (CSIC), 2023
(Manuales y anejos de Emerita ; 57)
158 p.
9788400112110
13,00 €

Este libro es el reflejo de algunas de las discusiones de carácter teórico y práctico que han surgido en el marco del proyecto «Compatibilidad de la base de datos REGLA con otros recursos digitales (COMREGLA)», financiado gracias a una ayuda de la Fundación BBVA a equipos de investigación científica en Humanidades Digitales (2018). En él se abordan un conjunto de problemas lingüísticos que suponen retos para la anotación de los textos clásicos.

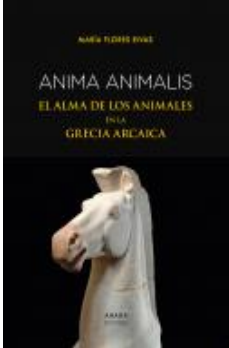

A Cultural History of Genocide in the Ancient World

Taylor, Tristan S. (ed.)
1. ed.
Bloomsbury, 2023
(The Cultural Histories Series)
304 p. ; 16x24 cm.
9781350034679
125,10 €

This volume presents a range of views on the challenges of applying the modern concept of “genocide” to an ancient context. It also considers the causes, motivations, and justifications of ancient mass violence, as well as contemporary responses to, and critiques of, such violence, along with how mass violence was represented and remembered in ancient literature and iconography.

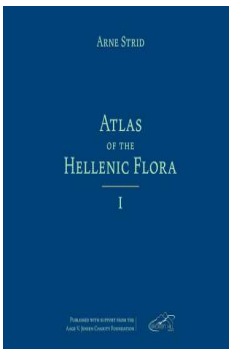

Anima Animalis : El alma de los animales en la Grecia arcaica

Flores Rivas, María
1. ed.
Abada, 2023
(Lecturas de historia)
510 p. ; 23x16 cm.
9788419008350
36,99 €

Este libro trata de responder a la discutida cuestión de cómo se concibe el alma animal en la Grecia de época arcaica. A través de las obras de los poetas y filósofos de ese periodo, descubriremos no solo que los antiguos griegos tenían una noción del alma animal, sino también cuáles eran sus principales diferencias con respecto a la propiamente humana, si bien para algunos de ellos el alma era un principio presente en todos los seres vivos, en los que manifestaba una naturaleza similar.

9788491444527
22,00 €

El lector se encontrará en estas páginas una versión al español de los comentarios de Galeno, una de las obras más célebre del Corpus Hippocraticum (CH), los Aforismos de Hipócrates. Figura, por tanto, aquí una traducción propia de los Aforismos y otra de los comentarios que hizo Galeno unos siglos después a éstos.

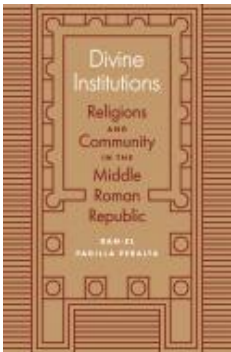

Critical Ancient World Studies : The Case for Forgetting Classics

Umachandran, Mathura (ed.)
 Ward, Marchella (ed.)
 1. ed.
 Routledge, 2023
 284 p.
 9781032120119
 50,06 €

This volume explores and elucidates critical ancient world studies (CAWS), a new model for the study of the ancient world operating critically, setting itself against a long history of a discipline formulated to naturalise a hierarchical, white supremacist origin story for an imagined modern West.

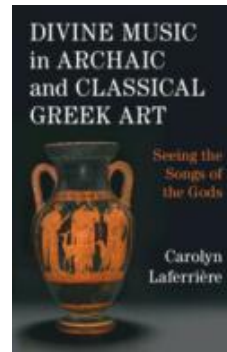

Divine Institutions : Religions and Community in the Middle Roman Republic

Padilla Peralta, Dan-el
 1. ed.
 Princeton University Press,
 2023
 344 p.
 9780691247632
 41,72 €

Many narrative histories of Rome's transformation from an Italian city-state to a Mediterranean superpower focus on political and military conflicts as the primary agents of social change. This book places religion at the heart of this transformation, showing how religious ritual and observance held the Roman Republic together during the fourth and third centuries BCE, a period when the Roman state significantly expanded and diversified.

Divine Music in Archaic and Classical Greek Art : Seeing the Songs of the Gods

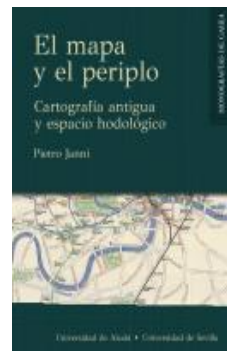

Laferrière, Carolyn M.
 1. ed.
 Cambridge University Press,
 2024
 298 p. ; 17x25 cm.
 9781009315944
 118,21 €

In this volume, Carolyn M. Laferrière examines Athenian vase-paintings and reliefs depicting the gods most frequently shown as musicians to reconstruct how images suggest the sounds of the music the gods made. Incorporating insights from recent work in sensory studies, she applies formal analysis together with literary and archaeological evidence to reconstruct the musical culture of Athens. Laferrière shows how images suggest the sounds of the gods' music.

Fertility, Ideology, and the Cultural Politics of Reproduction at Rome

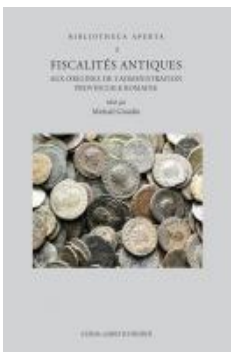

Hug, Angela
1. ed.
Brill, 2023
(Impact of Empire ; 45)
328 p.
9789004540774
145,52 €

Roman women bore children not just for their husbands, but for the Roman state. This book is the first comprehensive study of the importance of fecunditas (human fertility) in Roman society, c. 100 BC - AD 300. Its focus is the cultural impact of fecunditas, from gendered assumptions about infertility, to the social capital children brought to a marriage, to the emperors' exploitation of fecunditas to build and preserve dynasties.

Fiscalités Antiques : Aux origines de l'administration provinciale romaine

Girardin, Michaël (ed.)
1. ed.
Erma di Bretschneider, 2023
(Bibliotheca Aperta ; 3)
212 p. ; 17x24 cm.
9788891327246
190,32 €

How did Ancient Rome, with its gigantic empire, organize its fiscal system? There were many local traditions to take into account while building the Roman tax administration. So many specific situations were acknowledged that one might even wonder whether there was such a thing as "a Roman taxation system" at all.

Leadership, Social Cohesion, and Identity in Late Antique Spain and Gaul (500-700)

Castro, Dolores (historiadora) (ed.)
Ruchesi, Fernando (ed.)
1. ed.
Amsterdam University Press, 2023
(Late Antique and Early Medieval Iberia)
282 p. ; 15x23 cm.
9789463725958
139,07 €

The replacement of the Roman Empire in the West with emerging kingdoms like Visigothic Spain and Merovingian Gaul resulted in new societies, but without major population displacement. Societies changed because identities shifted and new points of cohesion formed under different leaders and leadership structures. This volume examines two kingdoms in the post-Roman west to understand how this process took shape.

Magic and Religion in the Ancient Mediterranean World : Studies in Honor of Christopher A. Faraone

Myth and History in the Historiography of Early Rome

Miano, Daniele (ed.)
Cornell, Tim (ed.)
Meunier, Nicolas L. J. (ed.)
1. ed.
Brill, 2023
(Historiography of Rome and Its Empire ; 17)
246 p. ; 25 cm.
9789004534490
127,88 €

The histories of early Rome written in antiquity by the likes of Livy and Dionysius of Halicarnassus include many sensational stories, from the she-wolf suckling the twins to the miraculous conception of Servius Tullius and the epiphany of the Dioscuri at Lake Regillus. Even the more sober parts of the narrative are of dubious historicity, and certainly include a good deal of rhetorical invention, aetiologies and folktales.

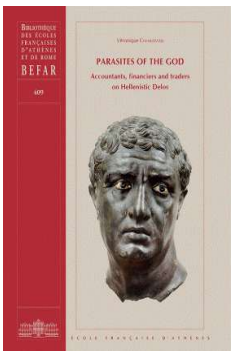

New Rome : The Empire in the East

Stephenson, Paul
1. ed.
Harvard University Press,
2023
464 p.
9780674294042
30,52 €

This book looks beyond traditional texts and well-known artifacts to offer a novel, scientifically-minded interpretation of antiquity's end. It turns out that the descent of Rome is inscribed not only in parchments but also in ice cores and DNA. From these and other sources, we learn that pollution and pandemics influenced the fate of Constantinople and the Eastern Roman Empire.

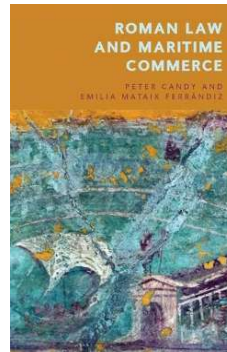

Parasites of the God : Accountants, Financiers and Traders on Hellenistic Delos

Chankowski, Veronique
1. ed.
Peeters, 2023
(Bibliothèque des Écoles
Françaises d'Athènes et de
Rome ; 409)
451 p.
9782869586116
74,06 €

This study, mainly based on epigraphic accounting sources, including more than five hundred accounts and engraved inventories that were displayed in the sanctuary of Apollo, but also on numismatic sources and archaeological remains on the seafloor, re-considers the question of Delos' place in the Hellenistic economy.

Roman Law and Maritime Commerce

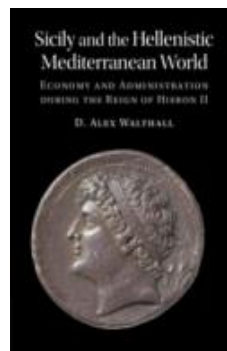

Candy, Peter (ed.)
Mataix Ferrándiz, Emilia (ed.)
1. ed.
Edinburgh University Press,
2024
224 p. ; 15x23 cm.
9781474478151
27,80 €

Bringing together specialists in ancient history, archaeology and Roman law, this book provides new perspectives on long-distance trade in the Roman world. Recent archaeological work has shown that maritime trade across the Mediterranean intensified greatly at the same time as the Roman state was extending its power overseas.

Este libro, que reúne a especialistas en historia antigua, arqueología y derecho romano, ofrece nuevas perspectivas sobre el comercio a larga distancia en el mundo romano.

Sicily and the Hellenistic Mediterranean World : Economy and Administration during the Reign of Hieron II

The Colonate in the Roman Empire

Sirks, Boudewijn
1. ed.
Cambridge University Press,
2024
360 p. ; 15x22 cm.
9781009172608
180,79 €

The fourth and fifth centuries AD gave rise to a particular phenomenon in the Roman Empire: the colonate. The colonate involved the fiscal regulation of a relationship of surety between landowners and farmers in the later Roman Empire and played a major role in agrarian and social relations, with implications for these farmers' freedom of movement and transmission of status.

The Discourse of Marriage in the Greco-Roman World

Beneker, Jeffrey (ed.)
Tsouvala, Georgia (ed.)
1. ed.
University of Wisconsin
Press, 2022
272 p.
9780299328443
37,48 €

The famous polymath Plutarch often discussed the relationship between spouses in his works, including Marriage Advice, Dialogue on Love, and many of the Parallel Lives. In this collection, leading scholars explore the marital views expressed in Plutarch's works and the art, philosophy, and literature produced by his contemporaries and predecessors.

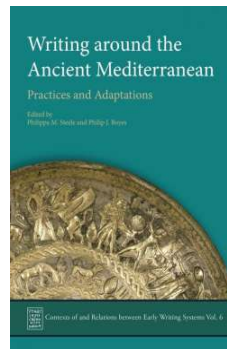

The Poems of Optatian : Puzzling out the Past in the Time of Constantine the Great

Hall, Linda Jones
1. ed.
Bloomsbury, 2024
256 p.
9781350374379
118,21 €

For the first time, the poems and accompanying letters of Publilius Optatianus Porfyrius (Optatian) are published here with a translation and detailed commentary, along with a full introduction to Optatian's work during this period. Optatian was sent into exile by Constantine sometime after the Emperor's ascent to power in Rome in 312 AD.

Writing Around the Ancient Mediterranean : Practices and Adaptations

Boyes, Philip J. (ed.)
Steele, Philippa M. (ed.)
1. ed.
Oxbow Books, 2022
(Contexts of and Relations
Between Early Writing
Systems ; 6)
320 p.
9781789258509
69,53 €

This volume brings together contributions by members of the Contexts of and Relations between Early Writing Systems (CREWS) research team and visiting fellows, offering a range of different perspectives and approaches to problems of writing in the ancient Mediterranean. Their focus is on practices, viewing writing as something that people do within a wider social and cultural context, and on adaptations, considering the ways in which writing changed and was changed by the people using it.
