A Mystery from the Mummy-Pits : The Amazing Journey of Ankh-Hap

Holt, Frank L.
1. ed.
Oxford University Press, 2024
224 p. ; 21x14 cm.
9780197694046
23,63 €

As the world recently commemorated the hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun, our fascination with the pharaoh begs for a balanced view. Most Egyptian tombs are not royal; most were never carefully cleared and documented; most have not had their occupants treated with respect or returned to their sepulchers; and most recovered mummies have not escaped the modern trafficking in ancient bodies and body parts.

Alternative Egyptology : Critical essays on the relation between academic and alternative interpretations of ancient Egypt

Bercken, B. J. L. van den (ed.)
1. ed.
Sidestone Press, 2024
182 p. ; 25x18 cm.
9789464261615
40,04 €

From a mummy on board the Titanic to the pyramids' alignment with the stars, from psychoactive mushrooms to the lost realm of Atlantis: alternative interpretations of ancient Egypt, often summarised as 'alternative Egyptology', have always focused on subjects that others shunned. Ever since the birth of scholarly Egyptology with the decipherment of the hieroglyphic script two hundred years ago, alternative interpretations and imaginative theories have flourished alongside it.

An Undertakers' Archive from the Kynopolite Nome : (P. Kynopolites)

Baetens, Gert
Clarysse, Willy
1. ed.
Peeters, 2024
(Collectanea Hellenistica ; 10)
130 p.
9789042952188
62,70 €

This book provides a comprehensive edition of five well-preserved Greek papyri from an archive of undertakers (nekrotaphoi) from the late Ptolemaic Kynopolite nome, four of which unpublished. The texts contain a wealth of information on mummification practices and funerary taxation in this era, in particular concerning the use of the embalming products kedria (Egyptian sfy) and pharmakon (Egyptian phr).

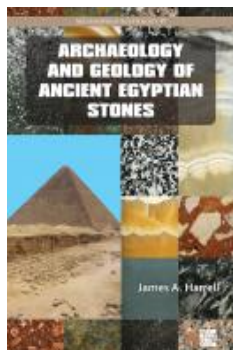

Archaeological Sites of the Nile Delta of Egypt : A Gazetteer

Spencer, Jeffrey
1. ed.
Egypt Exploration Society,
2024
(Excavation Memoir)
236 p. ; 29x21 cm.
9780856982538
97,34 €

This book is intended to be a directory, providing an overview and a direction to original sources, without seeking to republish all the known information about each site. It makes available the data on all 783 of the sites in the Egypt Exploration Society's Delta Survey. Data has been gathered from bibliographic sources, dedicated fieldwork and information from Egyptian and foreign missions in order to present a body of material previously available only in summary online.

Archaeology and Geology of Ancient Egyptian Stones

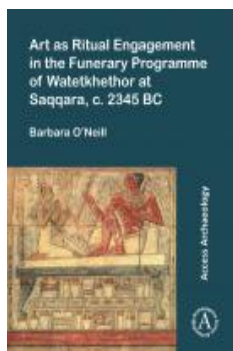

Harrell, James A.
1. ed.
Archaeopress, 2024
(Archaeopress Egyptology)
1098 p. ; 29x20 cm.
9781803275819
173,84 €

This book seeks to identify and describe all the rocks and minerals employed by the ancient Egyptians using proper geological nomenclature, and to give an account of their sources in so far as they are known. The various uses of the stones are described, as well as the technologies employed to extract, transport, carve, and thermally treat them.

Art as Ritual Engagement in the Funerary Programme of Watetkhethor at Saqqara, c. 2345 BC

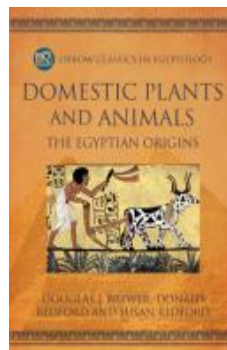

O'Neill, Barbara
1. ed.
Archaeopress, 2023
62 p. ; 27x20 cm.
9781803275536
30,60 €

Art as Ritual Engagement is examined through a case study of feminised funerary representation in the repertoire of Watetkhethor, an elite woman interred in the mastaba tomb of her spouse, Mereruka, at Saqqara, c.2345-2181 BCE.

El arte como compromiso ritual se examina a través de un estudio de caso de la representación funeraria feminizada en el repertorio de Watetkhethor, una mujer de élite enterrada en la tumba de la mastaba de su cónyuge, Mereruka, en Saqqara, c.2345-2181 AEC.

Domestic Plants and Animals : The Egyptian Origins

Brewer, Douglas J.
Redford, Donald B.
Redford, Susan
1. ed.
Oxbow Books, 2024
(Oxbow Classics in Egyptology)
160 p.
9798888570791
48,66 €

This facsimile edition of a much acclaimed volume brings back into print a major study of the evidence for the domesticated plants and animals exploited by the ancient Egyptians. The rise of agriculture must be amongst the most important steps that humans have taken on their long road to the present day and marked the beginning of sedentary life from the Neolithic onwards and the development of civilization.

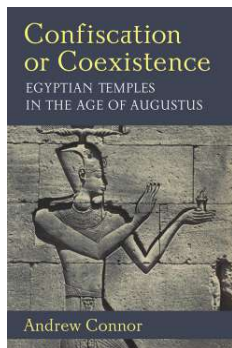

Egypt, Ethiopia, and the Greek Novel : Between Representation and Resistance

Cioffi, Robert
1. ed.
Oxford University Press, 2024
304 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9780192870537
125,16 €

There is no region more central to the ancient Greek romance novel than the thousand or so miles stretching from Alexandria to ancient Ethiopia that comprise the Nile River Valley. Yet, for all its importance, this work is the first book-length study of how this region is depicted in a literary genre whose fictional tales of love, travel, separation, and reunion flourished during the Roman imperial period.

Egyptian Temples in the Age of Augustus

Connor, Andrew
1. ed.
The University of Michigan Press, 2022
(New Texts from Ancient Cultures)
240 p.
9780472133222
93,17 €

It is generally accepted that Roman administrators, arriving in Egypt in the aftermath of Augustus' annexation of the province, confiscated en masse the land and other property belonging to the temples of Egypt—estimated at as much as one-third of the country. It is further accepted that this confiscation doomed the temples by removing their economic support and making them subservient to the Roman state, and that this in turn led to the collapse of Egyptian religion.

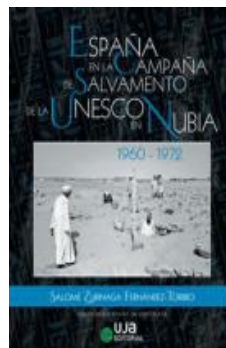

Égyptiens et Nubiens à Kerma : La céramique de Doukki Gel (Soudan) au Nouvel Empire

Ruffieux, Philippe
1. ed.
Peeters, 2023
(Orientalia Lovaniensia Analecta ; 317)
724 p.
9789042948600
273,60 €

Les temples égyptiens de Doukki Gel, à Kerma (Soudan), ont été bâtis sous le règne de Thoutmosis Ier, au centre d'un ensemble religieux et cérémoniel du Kerma Classique. Les fouilles du site ont livré de grandes quantités de céramiques, dont l'étude constitue la matière de ce livre. L'étude indique que la grande majorité du matériel des deux traditions était fabriqué localement, et révèle des influences réciproques entre Nubiens et Égyptiens, dues à la situation singulière de ce site.

España en la campaña de salvamento de la Unesco en Nubia : 1960-1972

Five New Kingdom Tombs at Saqqara

Raven, Maarten J.
1. ed.
Sidestone Press, 2024
(PALMA)
442 p. ; 28x21 cm.
9789464262711
85,80 €

The five tombs dealt with in this book were explored between 2009 and 2017 by the Leiden-Turin Expedition in the New Kingdom necropolis of Saqqara. All of them can be described as minor tombs, constructed wherever some space was still available in the cemetery between the major monuments of 18th Dynasty date.

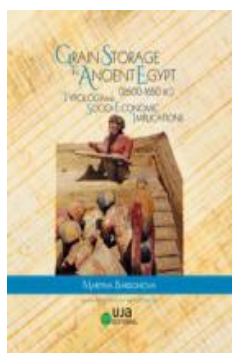

Género y sociedad en el Egipto romano : una mirada desde las cartas de mujeres

Menu, Bernadette
1. ed.
CNRS éditions, 2018
488 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9782271119728
38,48 €

L'Égypte ancienne nous a légué un ensemble unique de textes à caractère économique et juridique. Sur les parois rocheuses, la pierre, l'argile, l'os et l'ivoire, les métaux, le parchemin, le tissu, le bois ou le papyrus, ils permettent à l'égyptologue de lever le voile sur des pans entiers de la civilisation pharaonique et nous invitent dans le quotidien des anciens Égyptiens.

Histoire économique et sociale de l'ancienne Égypte, 1. 2

Menu, Bernadette
1. ed.
CNRS éditions, 2024
560 p. ; 23x17 cm.
9782271149770
40,56 €

Dès ses origines, l'Égypte pharaonique se distingue par des règles à la fois souples et autoritaires qui ont guidé pendant des siècles une monarchie puissante. Elles s'appuient sur les principes de justice et d'équité (la maât) et la croyance en la prolongation de la vie humaine au-delà des frontières de la mort. Ce dernier principe, celui d'éternité, a engendré des pratiques innovantes, dès le III^e millénaire, tant sur le plan juridique que dans les domaines économiques et sociaux.

Les Voies ouvertes à l'égyptologie

Coulon, Laurent
1. ed.
Éditions du Collège de France,
2024
(Leçons inaugurales)
64 p. ; 18x12 cm.
9782722606456
16,85 €

La civilisation de l'Égypte pharaonique se déploie le long du Nil sur une durée de presque 3 500 ans. La discipline qui l'étudie, l'égyptologie, est née en 1822 avec le déchiffrement des hiéroglyphes par Champollion qui enseigna au Collège de France, quelques années plus tard, une vision déjà très aboutie de ses développements futurs. La chaire " égyptienne " n'a cessé, depuis, d'évoluer et de se renouveler.

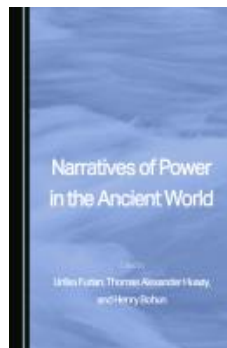

Miniature Forms as Transformative Thresholds : Faience Figurines in Middle Bronze Age Egypt, Nubia and the Levant (2100-1550 BC)

Miniaci, Gialuca
1. ed.
Peeters, 2023
(British Museum Publications on Egypt and Sudan ; 7)
739 p.
9789042936249
176,70 €

This volume analyses Middle Kingdom Egyptian figurines made in faience, a lustrous and intensely blue glaze paste, skilfully manufactured with a high degree of accuracy. They represent one of the most iconic and signature categories of artefacts in ancient Egypt. The research especially focuses on the manufacture, iconography and distribution (spatial and chronological) of this type of figurines.

Narratives of Power in the Ancient World

Husoy, Thomas Alexander
(ed.)
Bohun, Henry (ed.)
Furlan, Urska (ed.)
1. ed.
Cambridge Scholars
Publishing, 2023
285 p. ; 20x14 cm.
9781527529694
47,27 €

This volume showcases ways of displaying power in the Ancient world from Egypt's 18th Dynasty, encompassing ancient Greece, until the Sassanian Empire. It looks at how power was understood as the ability to influence others or events. This premise is applied to the Ancient world, analysing a variety of evidence and narratives from this period. The contributors explore the topic through themes such as art, mythology, literature, archaeology, and identity.

Of Gods and men : research on the Egyptian Temple from the New Kingdom to the Graeco-Roman Period

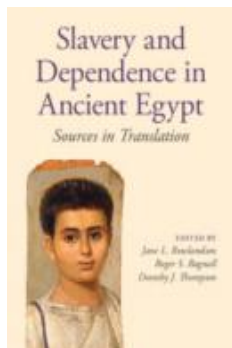

Fernández Pichel, Abraham
Ignacio
1. ed.
Universidad de Alcalá, 2022
(Monografías de Oriente
Antiguo ; 2)
284 p. ; 24x17 cm.
9788418979187
20,00 €

The present volume contains a total of eight articles which, in their thematic diversity, demonstrate the multiplicity of possible analyses to the Egyptian temple as an object of study. Among the different issues addressed, special attention is paid to the virtual reconstruction of certain areas of the temple of Karnak, as well as to the accessibility of some of its spaces by ritualists and the population in general.
