

MERLE, J.-C.: GERMAN IDEALISM AND THE CONCEPT OF PUNISHMENT

Part I. Desert as the Sole Justification for Punishment

1. The two Kantian concepts of right
2. Kant's legal justification of punishment
3. Kant's moral justification of punishment

Part II. Punishment as a Means of Rehabilitation

4. Fichte's 'expiation contract'
5. Hegel's negation of crime

Part III. Retributivist Inhumanity

6. Nietzsche and punishment without remorse
  7. Why are crimes against humanity punished at all?
- Conclusion.