

SALLABERGER, W. / I. SCHRAKAMP, EDS.: ASSOCIATED REGIONAL CHRONOLOGIES FOR THE ANCIENT NEAR EAST AND THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN [ARCANE], 3. HISTORY AND PHILOLOGY

ÍNDICE: W. Sallaberger / I. Schrakamp: Foreword — 1. Philological data for a historical chronology of Mesopotamia in the 3rd millennium: Introduction — King lists and related texts — Year dates — On the chronology of the early cuneiform evidence — The presargonic period — Transition from the presargonic to the sargonic period — Sargonic rule in Mesopotamia — The gutean period: a problem of 3rd millennium chronology — The third dynasty of Ur and other late 3rd millennium dynasties — Concluding table — 2. Chronology and historical geography of the 3rd millennium: G. Marchesi: Toward a chronology of early dynastic rulers in Mesopotamia — H. Steible: The geographical horizon of the texts from Fara/Shuruppak — A. Archi: The chronology of Ebla and synchronisms with Abarsal, Tuttul, Nagar and Nabada, Mari, Kish — M. G. Biga: The geographical scope of Ebla: commerce and wars. Some remarks — F. Pomponio: The rulers of Adab — I. Schrakamp: Geographical horizons of the presargonic and sargonic archives — W. Sommerfeld: The transition from the old akkadian period to Ur III in Lagash — P. Steinkeller: The gutian period in chronological perspective — K. De Graef: Susa in the late 3rd millennium: from a mesopotamian colony to an independent state (MC 2110-1980) — W. Sallaberger / I. Schrakamp: Conclusion.