

BRESSON, A.: THE MAKING OF THE ANCIENT GREEK ECONOMY. INSTITUTIONS, MARKETS, AND GROWTH IN THE CITY-STATES

Introduction

I The Economy of Ancient Greece: A Conceptual Framework

Structure and Production

II People in Their Environment

III Energy, Economy, and Transport Cost

IV The Polis and the Economy

V Agricultural Production

VI The Economy of the Agricultural World

VII Nonagricultural Production, Capital, and Innovation

VIII The Logic of Growth

Market and Trade

IX The Institutions of the Domestic Market

X Money and Credit

XI City-States, Taxes, and Trade

XII The Emporion and the Markets

XIII International Trade Networks

XIV Strategies of International Trade

XV The Greek Cities and the Market

Appendix: Weights, Measures, and Currency Units.