

LAES, C. / K. MUSTAKALLIO / V. VUOLANTO, EDS.: CHILDREN AND FAMILY IN LATE ANTIQUITY. LIFE, DEATH AND INTERACTION

1. Limits and Borders of Childhood and Family in the Roman Empire
Christian LAES, Katariina MUSTAKALLIO and Ville VUOLANTO

I. THE DEMOGRAPHIC REGIME AND ECOLOGICAL FACTORS

2. A Time to Die: Preliminary Notes on Seasonal Mortality in Late Antique Rome · Kyle HARPER
3. Catacombs and Health in Christian Rome · Leonard RUTGERS
4. Illness and Disability in Late Antique Christian Art (third to sixth century) · Manuela STUDER-KARLEN

II. LABOUR, SEX AND THE EXPERIENCE OF CHILDHOOD

5. Children and their Occupations in the City of Rome (300-700 CE) · Christian LAES
6. Early Christian Enslaved Families (first to fourth century) · Bernadette BROOTEN
7. Growing Up in Constantinople: Fifth-Century Life in a Christian City from a Child's Perspective · Reidar AASGAARD
8. "I Renounce the Sexual Abuse of Children": Renegotiating the Boundaries of Sexual Behaviour in Late Antiquity by Jews and Christians · John W. MARTENS

III. LOCAL CHILDHOODS AND THE RISE OF CHRISTIANITY

9. Children in late Roman Egypt: Christianity, the Family and Everyday Life · April PUDSEY
10. Martyr Saints and the Demon of Infant Mortality: Folk Healing in Early Christian Pediatric Medicine · Susan R. HOLMAN
11. From the Roman East into the Persian Empire: Theodoret of Cyrrhus and the Acts of Mar Mari on Parent-Child Relationships and Children's Health · Cornelia HORN
12. Daughters as Disasters? Daughters and Fathers in Ancient Judaism · Hagith SIVAN
13. The Construction of Elite Childhood and Youth in Fourth- and Fifth Century Antioch · Ville VUOLANTO