

FOX, D. / W. ERNST, EDS.: MONEY IN THE WESTERN LEGAL TRADITION. MIDDLE AGES TO BRETTON WOODS

David Fox: Introduction

Christine Desan: Money as a Legal Institution

Part I. Coins and the Law

Martin Allen: Currency Depreciation and Debasement in Medieval Europe

Fabian Wittreck: Money in Medieval Philosophy

Thomas R fner: Money in the Roman Law Texts

Wolfgang Ernst: The Legists' Doctrines on Money and the Law, Eleventh to Fifteenth Centuries

Andreas Thier: Money in Medieval Canon Law

Wim Decock: The Spanish Scholastics on Money and Credit

Stefan K tz: Gabriel Biel's Monetary Theory

Alain Wijffels: The 'Reduction' of Money in the Low Countries, c. 1489-1515

Part II. Money in the Early Modern Period: Inventing Nominalism

Michael North: Monetary Reforms in the Holy Roman Empire, Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries

David Fox: The Enforcement of Nominal Values of Money in Medieval and Early Modern Common Law

David Fox: The Case of Mixt Monies (1604)

Harry Dondorp: The Effects of Debasements on Debts in Early Modern Jurisprudence

Clausdieter Schott: German Law Faculties and Benches of Jurymen (Sch f fenst hle) on Loans and

Inflation: Legal Doctrine and Seventeenth Century Legal Practice

Anja Amend-Traut: Early Modern Monetary Policy in the Light of Contemporary Adjudication

Part III. The Emergence of Cashless Payment: Bank Money

William Roberds and François Velde: Early Public Banks I: Ledger Money Banks

Benjamin Geva: The Order to Pay Money in Medieval Continental Europe

James Steven Rogers: Early English Law of Checks

Benjamin Geva: 'Bank Money': The Rise, Fall, and Metamorphosis of the 'Transferable Deposit in Common Law

Stephan Meder: Giro Payments and the Beginning of the Modern Cashless Payment System

Part IV. The Emergence of Paper Money

William Roberds and François Velde: Early Public Banks II: Banks of Issue

Helmut Siekmann: Deposit Banking and the Use of Monetary Instruments

James Steven Rogers: Early English Law of Bank Notes

Kenneth G.C. Reid: Bank Notes and their Vindication in Eighteenth Century Scotland

Rastko Vrbaski: Multiple Currency Clauses and Currency Reform: The Austrian Coupon Cases

Part V. Fiat Money

Michael Bordo and Angela Redish: Putting the 'System' in the International Monetary System

Peter Kugler: The Bretton Woods System: Design and Operation

François Velde: Hyper-Inflations in the Early Twentieth Century

L. Randall Wray: From the State Theory of Money to Modern Monetary Theory

Roy Kreitner: Responses to Crisis: Re-configuring the Monetary and the Fiscal in the Great Depression

David Fox: Monetary Obligations and the Fragmentation of the Sterling Monetary Union

Jan Thiessen: The German Hyper-Inflation of the 1920s

Case Study: Swedish Government Bonds, their Gold Dollar Clause and the 1933 Roosevelt Act.