

BALCEROWICZ, P.: EARLY ASCETICISM IN INDIA. AJIVIKISM AND JAINISM

1. Introduction 2. The Encounter 3. Goeâla as a 'Jaina' Teacher 4. Souls and Colours 5. Divination and Foretelling the Future 6. Common Set of Early Scriptures 7. Common Cosmology 8. Goeâla's First Teaching and Vardhamâna's First Ascetic Experiences 9. The Finalities, Death and Sallekhanâ 10. Drinkables, Undrinkables and the Waters of the Sâmañña-phala-sutta 11. Âjivikas, Pottery and Pots 12. Determinism, Âjivikas and Jainism 13. Early Anekânta-vâda and the Three Figures 14. Âjivikas, Trairâoeikas, Jains 15. The beginnings of the Sapta-bhaôgî 16. Early Epistemological Devices and the Beginnings of Jaina Logic 17. The Anekânta-vâda and the Âjivikas 18. Traces of the Anekânta in Pali Buddhist Literature? 19. A Religious Centre and the Art of the Âjivikas 20. Three traditions: Pâroevea, Goeâla, Mahâvîra