

LENSKI, N.: CONSTANTINE AND THE CITIES. IMPERIAL AUTHORITY AND CIVIL POLITICS

1. Constantine's Self-Presentation

Constantine develops

Constantinian constants

Constantine and the christians: controlling the message

2. The Power of Petitions

Approaching Constantine: the Orcistus dossier

The exigencies of dialogue: Hispellum

Constantine's cities in the west: Nomen venerandum

Constantine's cities in the east: peer polity interaction

3. Reconstructing the Ancient City

Redistributing wealth

Building churches

Empowering bishops

4. Alternative Responses to Constantine

Engaging cities

Resisting cities

Opposing christians: donatists and caecilianists

Complex cities: Antioch and Alexandria.