

O'NEILL, O.: JUSTICE ACROSS BOUNDARIES. WHOSE OBLIGATIONS?

Introduction

Part I. Hunger across Boundaries

1. Lifeboat Earth
2. Rights, obligations and world hunger
3. Rights to compensation

Part II. Justifications across Boundaries

4. Justice and boundaries
5. Ethical reasoning and ideological pluralism
6. Bounded and cosmopolitan justice
7. Pluralism, positivism and the justification of human rights

Part III. Action across Boundaries

8. From Edmund Burke to twenty-first-century human rights: abstraction, circumstances and globalisation
9. From statist to global conceptions of justice
10. Global justice: whose obligations?
11. Agents of justice
12. The dark side of human rights

Part IV. Health across Boundaries

13. Public health or clinical ethics: thinking beyond borders
14. Broadening bioethics: clinical ethics, public health and global health