

ALVAREZ GILA, O. / A. ANGULO MORALES, EDS.: "FROM THE RECORDS OF MY DEEPEST MEMORY".
PERSONAL SOURCES AND THE STUDY OF EUROPEAN MIGRATION, 18TH-20TH CENTURIES

The directors: Foreword

A. Angulo Morales: Migration, mobility and voyages. A case study on the use of private sources for the understanding of basque migration in the eighteenth century

A. I. Arbelo García: A review of correspondence between the Canary Islands and the Americas in the eighteenth century

A. Cardozo Uzcátegui: Extreme correspondence. Simón Bolívar: from innocent youth to bitter military glory

O. Álvarez Gila: The memory of a people that don't write. Letters, autobiographies and other personal accounts of basque emigrants, 19th-20th centuries

M. Sanfilippo: The debate on personal sources for the history of italian emigration

G. Alroey: "For a quiet, satisfying life..." Jewish immigration from eastern Europe at the beginning of the twentieth century and its reflection in immigrants' letters to the information boureaus

R. Soutelo Vázquez: Instruments for managing affections and interests: the letters and photographs of galician families with emigrants (1900-1960)

M. I. Santos de Matos: Union ties: letters, correspondence and exchanged messages among spanish e-/immigrants (São Paulo, Brazil)

E. Sarmiento da Silva: The letters of Francisco Moura: memories of immigration, from Santa Comba to Rio de Janeiro

L. M. de Menezes: Love letters in the background of immigration: Contributions to a study on prostitution (Rio de Janeiro, 1900-1920)

M. Irianni: Getting into the forest. Immigrants and massiveness. The basques in Tandil, Argentina, 19th century