

BOZO, F. / A. ROEDER / M. E. SAROTTE, EDS.: GERMAN REUNIFICATION. A MULTINATIONAL HISTORY

Introduction: On the Politics of History, the Making of Deals, and the Way the Old Becomes the New, Frédéric Bozo, Andreas Rödder, and Mary Elise Sarotte

Part I: The Two Germanies and Unification

1. The Revolution in Germany: The End of the SED Dictatorship, East German Society and Reunification, Ilko-Sascha Kowalczyk
2. Transferring a Civil Revolution into High Politics: The West German Drive for Unification and the New European Order, Andreas Rödder

Part II: Superpowers React

3. "His East European Allies Say They Want to Be in NATO": US Foreign Policy, German Unification, and NATO's Role in European Security, 1989-1990, Mary Elise Sarotte
4. Gorbachev, German Reunification, and Soviet Demise, Vladislav Zubok

Part III: Western Europe Reacts

5. From "Yalta" to Maastricht: Mitterrand's France and German Unification, Frédéric Bozo
6. Not a Wholly New Europe: How the Integration Framework Shaped the End of the Cold War in Europe, Piers Ludlow
7. The United Kingdom: Divided Counsels, Global Concerns, Patrick Salmon

Part IV: Central and Eastern Europe React

8. Pivots in Poland's Response to German Unification, Gregory Domber
9. Germany's Unification, Its Eastern Neighbors, and European Security, Vojtech Mastny