

BOURDEAU, L. / M. GRAVARI-BARBAS / M. ROBINSON, EDS.: WORLD HERITAGE SITES AND TOURISM.
GLOBAL AND LOCAL RELATIONS

- 1 Tourism at World Heritage Sites: community ambivalence · Maria Gravari-Barbas, Mike Robinson and Laurent Bourdeau
- 2 World Heritage as a revitalization movement: managing local and global tourism in UNESCO's heritage-scape · Michael A. Di Giovine
- 3 Responsible tourism and poverty: the porters of the Inca Trail · James Rollefson, Carolina Espinoza Camus and Alexandra Arellano
- 4 Machu Picchu: an Andean Utopia for the twenty-first century? · Amy Cox Hall
- 5 Interrogating the 'universal' in St. Lucia's Pitons Management Area · Jennifer C. Lutton and Gregor Williams
- 6 Archaeological replica vendors and an alternative history of a Mexican heritage site: the case of Monte Albán · Ronda L. Brulotte
- 7 Indigenous perspectives on ownership and management of Yucatecan archaeological sites · Stephanie J. Litka
- 8 World Heritage, tourism development, and identity politics at the Tsodilo Hills · Rachel F. Giraud
- 9 Tourism community involvement strategy for the Living World Heritage Site of Hampi, India: a case study · Bernhard Bauer, Nitin Sinha, Michele Trimarchi and Vincenzo Zappino
- 10 Reconstructing biodiversity for tourism development: ethnographic accounts from a World Heritage Site in the making · Carsten Wergin
- 11 Post-inscription challenges: renegotiating World Heritage management in the Lapponia Area in Sweden · Patrick Brouder
- 12 The level of societal reproduction as a predictor of visitation: lessons from World Heritage Sites in the United States · Linda Joyce Forristal
- 13 Looking back towards the future: historical analysis of Machu Picchu planning documents as a key to

site conservation · Evan R. Ward

14 Shandong Province and tourism: an examination of World Heritage Sites · Ina Freeman and He Sun

15 The valuation of protected areas: tourists in Chitwan National Park, Nepal · Jennifer Michelle Cook and Michal J. Bardecki

16 The impact of tourism on Latin American World Heritage towns · Alfredo Conti

17 Visitor management in sensitive historic landscapes: strategies to avoid conflict in Hadrian's Wall World Heritage Site · David McGlade