

PROTT, V.: THE POLITICS OF SELF-DETERMINATION. REMAKING TERRITORIES AND NATIONAL IDENTITIES IN EUROPE, 1917-1923

Introduction

Part I: Planning the Post-War Order

1: Tying up the Loose Ends of National Self-Determination: British, French, and American Peace Planning, 1917-1919

2: 'Réintégration pure et simple?': Reinventing the Franco-German Border of Alsace-Lorraine, 1914-1918

3: The Cradle of Civilization on the Fringes of Europe: The Quest for Greek Expansion into Asia Minor

Part II: Implementing the Paris System

4: The Interwar Period in a Microcosm: Negotiating Borders at the Paris Peace Conference

5: Ethno-political Drifts: The Return of French Rule to Alsace-Lorraine, 1918-1919

6: A Precarious Border Zone: Ethnic Violence and the Greek-Turkish War of 1919-1922

7: Revisiting the Peace Architecture: Border Changes and Minority Rights in the League of Nations

Conclusion

Bibliography