

FLOHR, M. / A. WILSON, EDS.: ECONOMY OF POMPEII

Introduction: Investigating an Urban Economy, Miko Flohr and Andrew Wilson

Part I: City and Hinterland

- 1: The Agricultural Economy of Pompeii: Surplus and Dependence, Girolamo Ferdinando de Simone
- 2: Quantifying Pompeii: Population, Inequality, and the Urban Economy, Miko Flohr

Part II: Quality of Life

- 3: Consumer Behaviour in Pompeii: Theory and Evidence, Nick M. Ray
- 4: Sewers, Archaeobotany, and Diet at Pompeii and Herculaneum, Erica Rowan
- 5: Skeletal Remains and the Health of the Population at Pompeii, Estelle Lazer

Part III: Economic Life and its Contexts

- 6: Measuring the Movement Economy: A Network Analysis of Pompeii, Eric Poehler
- 7: Urban Production and the Pompeian Economy, Nicolas Monteix
- 8: Wealthy Entrepreneurs and the Urban Economy: Insula VI 1 in its Wider Economic Contexts, Damian Robinson
- 9: The Economics of Pompeian Painting, Domenico Esposito

Part IV: Money and Trade

- 10: Reevaluating Pompeii's Coin -Finds: Monetary Transactions and Urban Rubbish in the Retail Economy of an Ancient City, Steven J. R. Ellis
- 11: Bes, Butting Bulls, and Bars: The Life of Coinage at Pompeii, Richard Hobbs
- 12: Currency and Credit in the Bay of Naples in the First Century ad, Koenraad Verboven
- 13: Conflicts, Contract Enforcement, and Business Communities in the Archive of the Sulpicii, Wim Broekaert

Part V: Discussion

- 14: Pompeii Revisited, Willem Jongman