

GLENN, H. P. / L. D. SMITH, EDS.: LAW AND THE NEW LOGICS

Introduction Lionel D. Smith

Part I. New Logics in the Functioning of Legal Orders

1. Logics of argumentation and the law Henry Prakken
2. Conjunction of evidence and multivalent logic Kevin Clermont
3. One God, no state, and many legal arguments: multivalent logic in Jewish law Chaim Saiman

Part II. New Logics in the Relations of Legal Orders

4. Logical tools for legal pluralism Jaap Hage
5. Legal inconsistency and the emergence of states Nicholas Barber
6. Political settlement and the new logic of hybrid self-determination Christine Bell
7. Choice of law and choice of logic H. Patrick Glenn
8. Where laws conflict: an application of the method of chunk and permeate Graham Priest
9. Law and equity: chunk and permeate? Lionel D. Smith

Part III. The Logical Debate

10. Do inconsistent laws deliver gluts? Jc Beall
11. The applications of bivalent logic, and the misapplication of multivalent logic to law Andrew Halpin
12. Fuzzy law: a theory of quasi-legality Oren Perez.