

Contents

Acknowledgements	page vii
List of Abbreviations	xi
Prologue	1
Introduction	11
1 The Genealogy of Western Europe	13
1.1 Approach and Context: Blueprints of Hope	17
1.2 Planning Europe	25
1.3 Renewing Historiography	31
1.4 Outline of the Book	38
Part 1 Beyond Americanisation (1937–1947)
2 In Search of a Programme for the West	49
2.1 Human Rights: A Franco-American Grand Narrative	54
2.2 Neoliberalism and Ecumene	60
2.3 Tackling the Social Question	64
2.4 Mixed Economies and Ordoliberalism	71
3 Re-conceptualising Capitalism and Democracy	77
3.1 Fighting the Ghosts of ‘Après-Guerre’	81
3.2 ‘The Irrepressible Supremacy of Ideas’	85
3.3 Inventing European Christian Democracy	88
3.4 ‘Voices in the Night’	93
4 The Great Escape	102
4.1 Illusions and Experiments	106
4.2 Two-Step Move in Multilateralism	111
4.3 Grand Engineering: Banking without Banks	119
4.4 The Vicissitudes of Multilateralism	126

vi Contents

Part 2 The Making of European Integration (1947–1951)

5	The Marshall Plan: Western Europe as a Unit	133
5.1	Marshall's Message and the Failure of the ITO	135
5.2	An Island in the West	138
5.3	Dealing with the German Problem	142
5.4	'Coined Freedom'	146
6	British Preoccupations and Ecumenical Politics	150
6.1	Bevin's Grand Design	150
6.2	The Delusion of 'Western Union'	154
6.3	The Spiritual Dimension	158
6.4	The Emergence of a Continental West	163
7	Reality Check: The OEEC and 'Integration'	168
7.1	Transatlantic Action on Intra-European Trade	169
7.2	The Challenges of Convertibility	175
7.3	The German Re-entry	179
7.4	Launching European Integration	187
Conclusion
8	Eclipsing Atlantis	199
8.1	The Narrowing of Community	200
8.2	Europeanisation	202
8.3	Political and Spiritual Shifts	205
8.4	Arsenal of the Free World	208
	Epilogue	210
	Bibliography	216
	Index	231