

Contents

List of Figures [page vii]
List of Tables [xiii]
List of Contributors [xiv]
Acknowledgements [xvii]

Introduction: Between Words and Walls: Material and Textual Approaches to Housing in the Graeco-Roman World [1]
 RICHARD ALSTON, J. A. BAIRD AND APRIL PUDSEY

1 Kinship ‘In the Halls’: Poetry and the Archaeology of Early
 Greek Housing [27]
 EMILY VARTO

2 Domesticating the Ancient House: The Archaeology of a
 False Analogy [68]
 CASPAR MEYER

3 Mind the Gap: Reuniting Words and Walls in the Study of the Classical Greek House [96]
 JANETT MORGAN

4 A Family Affair: The Household Use of Attic lekythoi [133]
 KATERINA VOLIOTI

5 Textiles in Alkestis’ thalamos [181]
 AMY C. SMITH

6 Architectural Rhetoric and the Rhetoric of Architecture: Athens and Macedon in the Mid-4th Century BCE [212]
 LISA NEVETT

7 The Reconstruction of an Agricultural Landscape: Seeking the Farmstead [229]
 MAEVE MCHUGH

8	Mudbricks and Papyri from the Desert Sand: Housing in the Ptolemaic and Roman Fayum [261]	INGE UYTTERHOEVEN
9	Housing and Community: Structures in Houses and Kinship in Roman Tebtynis [300]	APRIL PUDSEY
10	The Elusive vestibulum [322]	SIMON SPEKSNIJDER
11	Living in the Liminal: Lares Compitales Shrines, Freedmen and Identity in Delos [354]	CRYSTA KACZMAREK
12	Experiencing Sense, Place and Space in the Roman Villa [381]	HANNAH PLATTS
13	Houses and Time: Material Memory at Dura-Europos [412]	J. A. BAIRD
14	Spaces of Desire: Houses, Households and Social Reproduction in the Roman World [442]	RICHARD ALSTON
15	A Response: ‘Using the Material and Written Sources’ Revisited [470]	PENELOPE ALLISON
	Index [495]	