

Contents

Preface — V

Original Titles and Places of Publication of the Essays Collected in This Volume — XIII

Part I: Visualizing the Known and the Unknown: Representations and Ideas of the World

Chapter 1

The World in Maps: Change and Continuity in the Middle Ages — 3

Chapter 2

Winds and Continents: Concepts for Structuring the World and Its Parts — 23

Chapter 3

Amazons in Medieval World Maps — 73

Chapter 4

From the Journey to the Map and Back: Creative Processes and Cultural Practices — 95

Part II: Symbolic, Narrative, and Spiritual Functions of Cartography: Europe and the Holy Land

Chapter 5

Graphic Form and Significance: Europe in the World Maps of Beatus of Liébana and Ranulf Higden — 133

Chapter 6

Mapping Narratives: Jerusalem in Medieval Mapped Spaces — 189

Chapter 7

Travel Accounts, Maps, and Diagrams: Burchard of Mount Sion and the Holy Land — 221

Part III: Between the Old and the New World: Maps as Means of Power

Chapter 8

New Maps for New Worlds? Cartographic Practices of Exploration — 265

Chapter 9

Battista Agnese's Portolan Atlases — 289

Chapter 10

Cartography as Politics: The Topographic Land Survey in Hesse around 1600 — 333

Index of Toponyms and Locations — 363

Index of Historical and Mythical Figures and Peoples — 373

Index of Modern Authors — 379