

Table of Contents

Preface to the handbook series	v
Preface	ix
1. Doing space: The pragmatics of language and space Heiko Hausendorf and Andreas H. Jucker	1
I. Describing space through language
2. Deictic reference in space Peter Auer and Anja Stukenbrock	23
3. The conceptualization of space in signed languages: Placing the signer in narratives Sherman Wilcox, Rocío Martínez and Diego Morales	63
4. Spatiality in written texts Christoph Schubert	95
5. Interactional onomastics: Place names as malleable resources Thomas Debois and Elwys De Stefani	125
6. Describing motion events Johannes Gerwien and Christiane von Stutterheim	153
7. Discourses of place: The formation of space and place through discourse Félix Danos	181
8. Imaginary spaces in storytelling Vivien Heller	209
9. Developmental perspectives on doing talk about space Anna Filipi	251

II. Spatial organization of social interaction

10. Encounters in public places: The establishment of interactional space in face-to-face openings
Federica D'Antoni, Thomas Debois, Elwys De Stefani, Philipp Hänggi, Lorenza Mondada, Julia Schneerson and Burak S. Tekin 281
11. Interactional spaces in stationary, mobile, video-mediated and virtual encounters
Pentti Haddington and Tuire Oittinen 317
12. The pragmatics of gesture and space
Ellen Fricke 363
13. Distance and closeness: The im/politeness of space in communication
Lucien Brown and Iris Hübscher 399

III. Communicative resources of constructed spaces

14. Architecture-for-interaction: Built, designed and furnished space for communicative purposes
Heiko Hausendorf and Reinhold Schmitt 431
15. Building, dwelling, and interacting: Steps in the evolution of public space from Paleolithic to present
Kenan Hochuli and Jürgen Streeck 473
16. The pragmatics of linguistic landscapes
Maria Rosario Yumul-Florendo and Sebastian Muth 523
17. The pragmatics of written texts in space
Wolfgang Kesselheim and Christoph Hottiger 549
18. Co-presence and beyond: Spatial configurations of communication in virtual environments
Nathalie Meyer and Andreas H. Jucker 579

IV. Pragmatics across space and cultures

19. Pragmatic variation across geographical and social space Jenny Nilsson, Jan Lindström, Love Bohman, Catrin Norrby, Klara Skogmyr Marian and Camilla Wide	611
20. Pragmatic variation across national varieties of pluricentric languages Klaus P. Schneider and J. César Félix-Brasdefer	637
21. Mapping perceptions and knowledge of language: Societal multilingualism and its socio-pragmatic grounding Christoph Purschke and Mirjam Schmalz	679
Bionotes	715
Author index	727
Subject index	735

