

Contents

Jan Engberg

Introduction — 1

Section 1: Investigating legal interpretation and argumentation

Mathilde Barraband, Anne-Marie Duquette, Julien Lefort-Favreau

The Dulac affair and the triple game of contemporary art — 9

Stanisław Goźdź-Roszkowski

Argumentation, rhetoric and legal justification. The case of Poland's Constitutional Tribunal ruling on abortion — 29

Giovanni Tuzet

The pragmatics of evidence discourse: Ostensive acts — 47

Section 2: Looking at language to investigate legal challenges

Daniel Greineder

Illusions of a common Language: Impressions of an arbitration practitioner — 67

Jacqueline Visconti

Pragmatic features of Italian court proceedings — 79

Jakub Eryk Marszałenko

Politeness Matters: What honorifics can tell us about accuracy in Japanese-English court interpreting — 91

Caroline Laske

Textual representation as a conceptual tool: Big data analysis of legal language — 117

Section 3: Theories of sense and meaning for legal investigations

Weronika Dziągiewska and Wojciech Rzepiński

What is practical about law? Contemporary legal philosophy on legal practice — 145

Mateusz Zeifert

Natural semantic (legal?) metalanguage. What can legal theory learn from Anna Wierzbicka? — 173

Index — 205