

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Figures, Maps and Tables — IX

Claudia Bernardi, Viola Franziska Müller, Vilhelm Vilhelmsson
and Biljana Stojić

Introduction: Moving Workers in History — 1

Gabriele Marcon

Chapter 1

Inveigled or Invited? The Migration of German Miners to the Medici Mines in Sixteenth-Century Tuscany — 15

Johan Heinsen

Chapter 2

Escape and Reform in the Early-Modern Danish Prison System — 39

Magnus Ressel

Chapter 3

Accounting Practices and the Transatlantic Slave Trade: The Business
Prospectus of an Eighteenth-Century European Slave Trader — 65

Vilhelm Vilhelmsson and Emil Gunnlaugsson

Chapter 4

Passports, Permits, and Labour Im/Mobility in Iceland, 1780s–1860s — 87

Müge Özbek

Chapter 5

Keeping Domestic Workers Dependent in Early Twentieth-Century
Istanbul — 113

Aigi Rahi-Tamm

Chapter 6

Lives between Forced Labour Measures: The Case of Kulaks Deported from Estonia, 1940–1960 — 137

Claudia Bernardi

Chapter 7

Empalmado y Contratado*: The Valorisation and Coexistence of Labour
Mobility and Immobilisation in the Experience of Mexican ‘Braceros’, 1940s–1960s — 173

Angelina Kussy

Chapter 8

From Peasants in Romania to the Global Care Class in Spain, 1949–2019 — 199

Thomas Nail

Afterword: Coercion and Historical Patterns of Motion — 223

Bibliography — 235

Contributors — 255

Index — 257