

Índice

|                                                                                                                           |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Other views on deindustrialization .....                                                                                  | 11  |
| RUBÉN VEGA AND IRENE DÍAZ                                                                                          |     |
| The scars of de industrialization in Gijón through the testimonies of its protagonists.....                               | 29  |
| ANGEL ALONSO DOMÍNGUEZ                                                                                             |     |
| The shipbuilding industry in Gijón. A memory of labour in the shipyar .....                                               | 45  |
| CRISTINA CIPITRIA CASTRO                                                                                           |     |
| They melted Asturias!.....                                                                                                | 63  |
| HÉCTOR GONZÁLEZ PÉREZ                                                                                              |     |
| Crisis, industrial decadence, and disappearance of the workers' memory in greater Bilbao .....                            | 79  |
| JOSÉ ANTONIO PÉREZ PÉREZ                                                                                           |     |
| Narrative and memory of deindustrialization in Burgos: the case of 'Villa Textil' (1920-2020).....                        | 95  |
| JUAN JOSÉ MARTÍN                                                                                                   |     |
| Cartagena in flames: the industrial crisis of 1992 .....                                                                  | 117 |
| JOSÉ IBARRA BASTIDA                                                                                                |     |
| Memory, work and resistance: the case of the naval industry in Rio de Janeiro .....                                       | 133 |
| ELINA DA FONTE PESSANHALUISA BARBOSA PEREIRA                                                            |     |
| One person one job. Class, gender and feminism in the workers' struggles of Biscayan deindustrialization (1977-1994)..... | 151 |
| DAVID BEORLEGUI ZARRANZ                                                                                            |     |
| Women in the mining basins of Asturias. between labour vindication and social mobilization .....                          | 163 |
| IRENE DÍAZ MARTÍNEZ                                                                                                |     |
| Women, offshoring and... deindustrialization? Two cases of multinational companies in Asturias (2010-2020). .....         | 181 |
| AMAYA CAUNEDO DOMÍNGUEZ                                                                                            |     |

|                                                                                                                                         |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Class and gender de/construction in industrial working women in the Asturian deindustrialization process .....                          | 193 |
| NEREA GONZÁLEZ DE ARRIBA                                                                                                         |     |
| SPACES .....                                                                                                                     | 207 |
| The rebellion of forms: critical imaginaries in the face of uncertainty. Preliminary study on the metropolitan area of Barcelona .....  | 209 |
| JAVIER TÉBAR HURTADO                                                                                                             |     |
| The reconstruction of memory and industrial heritage from community interventions in the town of Villa Elisa, Argentina .....           | 225 |
| JULIANA FRASSA                                                                                                                   |     |
| The Argentine industry in the alley. La Bernalesa, south of the metropolitan region of Buenos Aires.....                                | 241 |
| CINTIA RUSSOPATRICIA GUTTI                                                                                            |     |
| Heterogeneities of England's deindustrializing towns: comparative urbanisms in territories of relegation .....                          | 259 |
| JAY EMERY                                                                                                                        |     |
| Labour memory and precarious subjectivity. Post-industrial cultures in the metropolitan periphery of Madrid.....                        | 279 |
| PABLO LÓPEZ CALLE                                                                                                                |     |
| HERITAGE .....                                                                                                                   | 297 |
| Industrial Heritage as a consequence of structural economic transformations – rival conceptualizations in comparative perspective ..... | 299 |
| STEFAN BERGER                                                                                                                    |     |
| Wreck or Cabinet. Analysis and proposals on the musealized industrial heritage in Asturias.....                                         | 325 |
| FAUSTINO SUÁREZ ANTUÑA                                                                                                           |     |
| The museography treatment of deindustrialization in the Basque Country .....                                                            | 355 |
| RAFAEL RUZAFÁ ORTEGA                                                                                                             |     |
| Industrial tourism in Asturias. Dissemination, tourist attraction and the absence of the worker.....                                    | 371 |
| DAVID GONZÁLEZ PALOMARES                                                                                                         |     |

|                                                                                                                                                                              |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The common house as a cultural object: on the heritagization of everyday working-class life in the 1940s and 1950s. The cases of Le Havre (Fr.) and Mieres.....              | 387 |
| MARÍA FERNANDA FERNÁNDEZ GUTIÉRREZ                                                                                                                                    |     |
| The historical-industrial complex of Arnao. Memory and forgetfulness.....                                                                                                    | 413 |
| JORGE MUÑIZ SÁNCHEZ                                                                                                                                                   |     |
| The de-industrialization of urban governance: Iota and its aesthetic turn.....                                                                                               | 427 |
| DR. MARÍA ESPERANZA ROCK NÚÑEZ                                                                                                                                        |     |
| REPRESENTATIONS .....                                                                                                                                                        | 439 |
| "Unprecedented class consciousness": Labour memory in the wake of deindustrialisation .....                                                                                  | 441 |
| GILDA ZAZZARA                                                                                                                                                         |     |
| "With factories, there are problems, but without factories, we're bored". Deindustrialization in France as seen in films from 1995-2005 .....                                | 457 |
| NICOLAS HATZFELD- ALAIN MICHEL - GWENAËLE ROT                                                                                                                         |     |
| From documentarist present to historical fiction: The Ruhr's cinematic ending as an industrial region .....                                                                  | 473 |
| STEFAN MOITRA                                                                                                                                                         |     |
| Depictions of the labour world. Mining flash fiction stories from the "Contest Manuel Nevado Madrid" (Juan Muñiz Zapico Foundation of Workers' Commissions of Asturias)..... | 491 |
| BENIGNO DELMIRO COTO                                                                                                                                                  |     |
| Landscape with ruins: the reflection of socioeconomic changes in the asturian literature of the surdimientu .....                                                     | 509 |
| MARTA MORI DE ARRIBA                                                                                                                                                  |     |
| From intuitive memory to artistic creation. The most representative social and cultural perceptions of the industrial and mining past in Asturian art.....                   | 531 |
| MARÍA DEL MAR DÍAZ GONZÁLEZ                                                                                                                                           |     |
| Resignifying the past: memory and cultural creation in Asturias ...                                                                                                          | 559 |
| RUBÉN VEGA                                                                                                                                                            |     |
| AUTHORS .....                                                                                                                                                                | 579 |