

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	9
Photographs	15
Illustrations	17
Introduction	19
Preliminary	25
1 First Clues	29
1.1. The Beginning	29
1.2. Development of the Research	31
1.3. Selection of the Poets from the XV International Brigade ---	32
1.4. Selection of the Retrospective Poets	33
1.5. Selection of the Poets who supported the Spanish Republic from Abroad	33
2 The Intervention of the International Brigades: The Answer to a False Agreement of Non-Intervention--	35
2.1. The World-Wide Political Scenario	35
2.2. The Diplomatic Trench	38
2.3. Let Who is Free of Sin Throw the First Stone	39
2.4. The International Brigades Stand Up for the Spanish Republic: The Answer to a Farce -----	43
2.5. Knowing the XV Brigade: Who were they? -----	45
2.6. After the Battle: The Withdrawal of the Volunteers -----	48
3 A Sea of Papers: The International Press in The Spanish War	51
3.1. The War Correspondents	51
3.2. The Press of the International Brigades in English -----	54

◆

4	Literary Influences	57
	4.1. The Impact of the First World War Poetry on the Brigadists	57
	4.2. Influence of Imagism and Aesthetic Currents of the Early Decades of the 20th Century	61
	4.3. Overview of some Canonical Poets' Influence on this Poetic Legacy	63
5	Anthology and Stylistic Analysis	67
	5.1. Corpus of the Brigadist Group and Stylistic Analyses	67
	5.2. Corpus of the Retrospective Group and Stylistic Analyses	143
	5.3. Corpus of the Abroad Group and Stylistic Analyses	177
6	Conclusion	225
7	Bibliography.....	231
	7.1. Cited and Complementary Readings	231
	7.2. Literary Webpages	237
	7.3. Libraries and Newspaper Archives	238
	7.4. Photographic Archives	240
	7.5. Miscellaneous	241
	Annex: Biographical Notes on the Poets and Information about the Publication Dates of the Poems	243
	Brigadist group	243
	Retrospective group	272
	Abroad group	280