Le contenu de la paix a fait couler beaucoup d'encre car il prévoyait notamment que le Plantagenêt prêle l'hommage au roi de France : une clause qui deviendrait incompatible avec la montée des États au siècle suivant. La paix de Paris de 1259 a ouvert trois quarts de siècle de paix entre deux maisons qui se querellaient depuis le XIIe siècle.

Le Moyen Âge est souvent évoqué comme le référent incontournable de l'horreur sociale et de la pauvreté humaine. Lorsque le discours politique, sociologique ou culturel cherche à synthétiser en peu de mots une situation jugée inacceptable, il lui suffit de la qualifier de médiévale.

Or, cette comparaison est également présente dans les propos des collapsologues.

In the midst of profound political changes in late seventh-century Egypt, after the end of Roman hegemony and during Islamic rule, a bishop named John from the city of Nikiu sat down to pen a chronicle. It is a puzzling and fascinating work that reimagines the established Roman genre of Christian world history as a dialectic between a Roman state that often failed to maintain Christian orthodoxy and Roman citizens who attempted to nudge the state in the direction of correct theology.
