A History of the Muslim World : From Its Origins to the Dawn of Modernity

Cook, Michael
1. ed.
Princeton University Press,
2025
960 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9780691236599
28,48 €

This book describes and explains the major events, personalities, conflicts, and convergences that have shaped the history of the Muslim world. The body of the book takes readers from the origins of Islam to the eve of the nineteenth century, and an epilogue continues the story to the present day. Michael Cook thus provides a broad history of a civilization remarkable for both its unity and diversity.

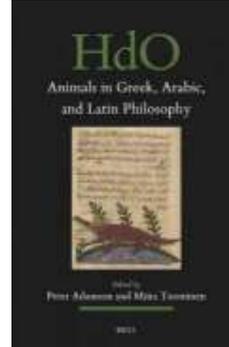

After Revelation : The Rabbinic Past in the Medieval Islamic World

Herman, Marc D.
1. ed.
University of Pennsylvania
Press, 2025
(Jewish Culture and Contexts)
288 p. ; 22x15 cm.
9781512827781
92,48 €

Reveals how medieval Jews developed religious law through contact with their Muslim neighbors
After Revelation offers a dynamic new perspective on medieval Jewish legal thought and its integration in the wider Islamic world. Here, Marc D. Herman demonstrates that Jews were fully conversant in their contemporaries' ideas about revelation, law, and legal interpretation.

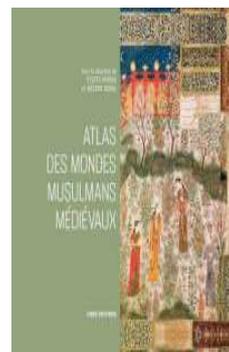

Animals in Greek, Arabic, and Latin Philosophy

Adamson, Peter (ed.)
Tuominen, Miira (ed.)
1. ed.
Brill, 2025
(Handbook of Oriental Studies. Section 1 The Near and Middle East ; 190)
viii, 636 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9789004744127
208,35 €

Non-human animals are a topic of intense philosophical interest in the modern day. It is often supposed that this is a recent development, but in fact pre-modern philosophers were intensely interested in animals. Aristotle initiated a long-standing zoological tradition, but it was only part of the vast literature on animals in antiquity and the middle ages. To do it justice, this book gathers twenty-five studies of animals in Greek, Arabic, and Latin philosophy.

Becoming Arab : The Formation of Arab Identity in the Medieval Middle East

Rapoport, Yossef
1. ed.
Princeton University Press,
2025
376 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9780691210636
54,10 €

During the later Middle Ages, peasants in Egypt and Greater Syria came to view themselves as members of Arab clans that had originated in the Arabian Peninsula. They expressed their Arab identity by wearing Arab headgear, adopting an Arab dialect, and circulating a new genre of popular epic that told heroic tales of pre-Islamic Arabia.

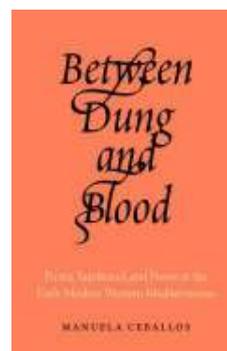

Before the Qur'an : Material Sources at the Advent of Muslim Scripture

Dost, Süleyman
1. ed.
Edinburgh University Press,
2026
(Edinburgh Studies in Islamic Scripture and Theology)
248 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9781399528641
135,26 €

The question of the Qur'an's geographical and cultural context has been hotly debated in the last few decades. Several authors have proposed that its place of origin may be somewhere other than the Hijaz in Western Arabia, the location stated within Islamic literary sources. Yet these theories have not engaged with the resources provided by numerous inscriptions in a wide range of ancient languages in the Arabian Peninsula and its environs.

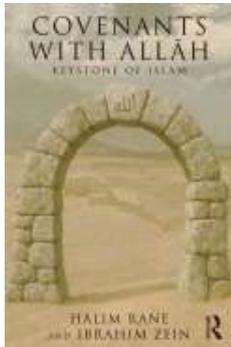

Between Dung and Blood : Purity, Sainthood, and Power in the Early Modern Western Mediterranean

Ceballos, Manuela
1. ed.
University of California Press,
2025
296 p. ; 22x15 cm.
9780520421035
113,90 €

Between Dung and Blood investigates the stories of two sixteenth-century saints: the Spanish Christian Teresa de Jesús and the Moroccan Sufi Sidi Ridwan al-Januwi, both from families of converts. Through the stories of these saints, Manuela Ceballos reveals the roles played by blood and bodily pollution as substances and symbols in the religious and political fabric of the early modern Western Mediterranean.

24,95 €

¿Qué ocurrió realmente en Algeciras tras su abandono y destrucción en el siglo XIV?

Este ensayo invita al lector a adentrarse en uno de los episodios más fascinantes y menos explorados de la historia algecireña. A través de una investigación minuciosa y rigurosa, se cuestionan las versiones tradicionales y se aportan nuevas claves para comprender tres grandes enigmas:

La datación exacta del abandono y la demolición de la ciudad, hasta ahora envuelta en controversia.

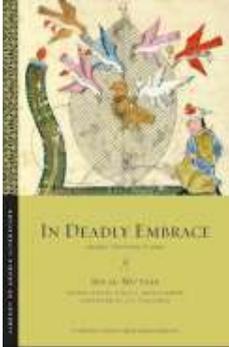

Huertas valencianas y marjales (siglos XIII-XIX) : agroecosistemas hidráulicos de base orgánica

9781479835997
21,36 €

A collection of poems about nature and power To Ibn al-Mu'tazz and his Abbasid contemporaries, the hunt was more than a diversion—it was the theater for their poetic and political endeavors, captured here in fifty-nine Arabic hunting poems, or tardiyyat. The poems of In Deadly Embrace describe hunting expeditions with animals trained to hunt, including saluki hounds and birds of prey. Many were composed after these outings, when the hunting party gathered to enjoy the game they caught.

L'Abécédaire de Averroès

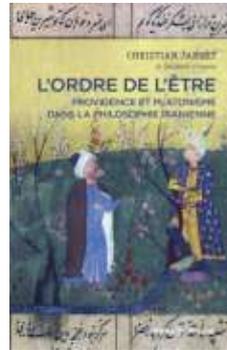

Benmakhlouf, Ali
1. ed.
Éditions de L'Observatoire,
2025
(Abécédaires des lumières)
208 p. ; 20x14 cm.
9791032927625
24,02 €

De la philosophie au droit, en passant par la théologie et la médecine, Averroès a embrassé bien des domaines de la connaissance humaine du XIIe siècle.

Le philosophe andalou, médecin auprès des sultans almohades à Cordoue, distingua nettement entre la religion, « sœur de lait » de la philosophie selon lui, et le discours théologique dont la méthode dialectique conduit souvent à des polémiques dangereuses pour la cohésion de la cité.

L'ordre de l'être : providence et platonisme dans la philosophie Iranienne

Jambet, Christian
1. ed.
CNRS éditions, 2025
400 p. ; 23x15 cm.
9782271147080
29,74 €

Loin d'examiner seulement des problèmes de logique, d'éthique et de politique, la philosophie islamique a pour fin une religion philosophique, distincte des aspects exotériques et juridiques qui dominant l'essentiel de la pensée musulmane. Les philosophes, en particulier Mîr Dâmâd et Mullâ Sadrâ, ont l'ambition de concurrencer les théologiens en recherchant la juste définition de la divinité et celle de la souveraineté.
